

Job Description

Job Title: Mud Plant Operator

Pay Status: Hourly

FLSA Status: Non-Exempt

Reports to: Mud Plant Lead Operator

To apply for this position, you must submit an online application through our website at www.fairweather.com/careers. We will not accept resumes in lieu of an application. However, you may electronically attach your cover letter and resume to your application.

Summary:

The Mud Plant Operator role will be responsible for ensuring the facility is in safe operating condition and able to provide uninterrupted support to rig operations. Responsibilities include mixing drilling and completion fluids; loading and offloading trucks; ensuring facility is clean including pits and equipment; maintaining lube plant equipment on a regular basis and maintaining plant facilities.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities:

- Working knowledge of P&ID's, process flow diagrams, piping and valve alignment
- Working knowledge of low pressure mud systems

Minimum Qualifications

- High school diploma or equivalent (GED)
- Must have previous Mud Plant or similar operations experience
- Possess a valid driver's license
- Must be a certified forklift operator, or ability to obtain certification

Physical Requirements:

- Ability to pass a post offer physical, Drug screen / Functional Capacity Exam

- Ability to work in an industrial environment

Working Conditions:

- Two week rotations, 12 hours a day/7 days a week shifts
- Work in remote locations as an independent provider
- May be required to fly in small aircrafts

Disclaimer: The above information has been designed to indicate the general nature and level of work performed by employees within this classification. It is not designed to contain or be interpreted as a comprehensive inventory of all duties and responsibilities required.

Fairweather is an equal opportunity employer and values diversity. All employment is decided on the basis of qualifications, merit and business need.